

Check yourself!

Homophones

Homophones are words that sound the same as other words however they have different spelling and different meanings.

Many people make the same common errors with homophones—are you one of them?

Common homophone mistakes:

- There - “There is the football.”
- Their - “It is their football.”
- They’re - “They’re going out to play football.”

- Which - “Which way shall we go?”
- Witch - “She was a scary witch with a broomstick.”

- Bored - “I’m so bored as there is nothing to do.”
- Board - “Look at the white board please.”

- Here - “Hey, come over here.”
- Hear - “I can’t hear you.”